

What is CUP Spring Break?

Six days on the West Side of Chicago for $225

Worshipping, serving and learning with your chapter and other IV students.

Encountering the power of the Gospel in our broken world and our broken lives

Partnering with and learning from ministries in the community with hands on service

Discussions, stories, and experiences on injustice, poverty and ethnic identity

Time with God and in God's word

"God revealed that He's a just God. He loves all people the same. His purpose is to restore the world that He created which is now broken and separated. He desires unity amongst differences."
